1945-D, and 1980-B

Farming Experience and Managerial Ability

Approved by: Deputy Administrator, Farm Loan Programs

Carolyn B. Cooksey

1 Overview

Directives Series Change

Effective October 1, 1998, notices signed by DAFLP will be issued in the FLP series instead of the FC series. The FC series will be made obsolete. The notices currently issued in the FC series will remain so until the individual disposal date.

Background

FmHA Instructions 1941-A, 1943-A, 1945-D, and 1980-B, require eligible applicants to have applicable education or on the job training or farming experience in managing and operating a farm or ranch that indicates the managerial ability necessary to ensure reasonable prospects of success in the proposed plan of operation. By statute, eligible applicants for a direct farm ownership (FO) loan must also have operated a farm or ranch for at least 3 years.

Notice FLP-1

C Purpose

This notice provides:

- guidance in determining sufficient applicable education, training, and experience for program eligibility under FmHA Instructions 1941-A, 1943-A, 1945-D, and 1980-B, including the 3 year operating requirement for a direct FO loan
- some examples of adequate farming experience for eligibility requirements under FmHA Instructions 1941-A, 1943-A, 1945-D, and 1980-B.

Note: The guidance in this notice should ensure greater uniformity of interpretation among States and County Offices in the review of loan applications. Decisions makers should not rely solely on the examples given.

D Contacts

State Offices shall direct questions about this notice to LMD.

2 Education, Training, and Farming Experience Requirements

Overview

Meeting any of the criteria in this paragraph could comply with the eligibility requirement for education, training, or farming experience. The requirement also may be met by some combination of these or other items. Each application must be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Applicable Education

To meet the requirement through education alone, the applicant must provide evidence of either of the following:

- completion of a comprehensive educational program in agriculture
- a combination of hands-on experience and education which would be equivalent to a comprehensive education program.

The education must be relevant to the planned operation.

Some examples of applicable education which meet the requirement are that the applicant:

- obtained a 4-year college degree in agriculture business, horticulture, animal science, agronomy, or other agricultural related field
 - obtained a 2-year degree from a technical college in agriculture business, horticulture, animal science, agronomy, or other agricultural field, and have experience working on a farm
 - successfully completed vocational or general agriculture classes in high school, participated in and successfully completed applicable projects in 4-H, Future Farmers of America, or another agricultural affiliated group and have experience working on a farm
 - was raised and worked on, or is currently working on, a farm and has successfully completed related enterprise farm management courses offered by Cooperative Extension Service, community college, adult vocational agricultural program, land grant university, or a similar program with academic integrity.

C

On-the-Job Training

To meet the requirement through on-the-job training alone, the applicant must be currently working, or have recently worked as hired farm labor with an agriculture producer, in operating a farm or ranch, as part of an apprenticeship program.

D

Farming Experience

To meet the requirement through farming experience alone, 1 of the following must have occurred:

- applicant must have been an owner (of the business, but not necessarily the land), manager and operator of a farm operation for at least 1 year's complete production and marketing cycle as evidenced by tax returns, FSA farm records, or similar documentation
- applicant must have been employed as a farm manager or farm management consultant for at least 1 year's complete production and marketing cycle
- applicant must have participated in management and operation of a farm by virtue of being raised on a farm, and have held significant responsibility for day-to-day management decisions for at least 1 year's complete production and marketing cycle on the farm. Examples of such responsibilities include, but are not limited to, decisions to cull livestock, selection of seed varieties and weed control programs, determining whether equipment should be repaired or replaced, selection of input suppliers, and selection of feeding programs or strategies.

Compliance with the experience requirement through the second or third bulleted items in this subparagraph must be thoroughly documented to verify that the applicant did indeed have management responsibilities and did not function solely as a laborer.

E Operation of a
Farm for Direct
Farm Ownership

In addition to meeting the education and/or training or farming experience requirement, eligible direct farm ownership loan applicants must have operated a farm or ranch for at least 3 years. This is a statutory requirement and cannot be waived.

IF the applicant is...	THEN to be an operator...
an individual	the applicant must have materially and substantially participated and provided day-to-day labor and management of the farm or ranch, such that if the individual did not provide these inputs, operation of the farm or ranch would be seriously impaired.
an entity	all members must have materially and substantially participated in the operation of the farm or ranch. Material and substantial participation requires that the members provided a significant amount of management, or management and labor necessary for day-to-day activities, such that if the members did not provide these inputs, operation of the farm or ranch would be seriously impaired.
